Escobedo Skin Center Fights Acne in Austin

Austin, TX December 4, 2009--Escobedo Skin Center proudly announces the First Annual Clear Skin Drive to help teens and adults regain clear skin and confidence this season.

The event is free and open to public and will provide free consultations with Dr. Michael Escobedo as well as prescriptions for acne medication.

This drive will provide members of the community, specifically those without health insurance, with affordable acne treatment. Many members of the community want clear skin but do not have the medical or financial resources.

The Clear Skin Drive will be the first of many to benefit the community and give Austin residents a chance for clear skin and confidence.
